

THE NEW PLAYS

"Maytime"
Romance With Music
BY CHARLES DARNTON.

States, he has not been much to the thought. At that time he claimed that in his possession letters directed to him from the Emperor, and his efforts to secure funds which he claimed were due him from properties in Germany. He was originally the interest for the remainder of the war.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back Its Color and Lustre with Grandma's
Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 30 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of mess.

The various periods of the play gave certain pathos to scenes rare in musical productions. Washington Square in 1840 looked like a nice place in which to pass a hot night. A night club of 1862, to which P. T. Barnum brought a Spanish dancer, suggested curiously enough any old night on Broadway at the present time. Somebody said, "I've made good, all right!" This speech, of course, was perfectly suited to the period. (Sometime later, it may have been "in the 40's," according to the programme—something was said about "a cheap skat.") Noah was a young man in his time! An auction sale of paintings engaged the greater part of attention in the third act, while the fourth brought to view a fashionable dressmaker's place, with a doddering old beau making grimaces at a young woman full of health and courage.

Eugie Wood talked and sang at the end of the year, the romantic maiden of the first period, but she softened with age, and took on a sentimental charm that had stage value. Charles Purcell was the young lover who grew old with a fairly good sense of character, and he and Miss Wood made "The Road to Romance" a hit, due to the audience. Minna Wallen danced with Spanish abandon. William Morris acted like a mechanical comedian; Gertrude Vanderbilt figured prettily in the proceedings, and good-looking chorus girls added to the enlivening effect of the performance.

"Maytime" is a novel musical play.

If you happened to see "Milestone" in the course of your theatre-going, you may easily imagine "Maytime," seen last night at the Shubert Theatre. This musical play ranges from 1840 to the twentieth century, and no apologies are offered by Rita Johnson Young, who has provided a little story of her own.

"Maytime" is romance with music by Edmund Romberg. If you are not thrilled by the romances, you may like the music. A gypsy song was the best thing of the night, and Arthur Allen sang it so well that it was only human for the audience to ask to hear it a second time. Mr. Albro easily carried off first hon-

"INTERNATIONAL SPY" IS PUT UNDER ARREST

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 17.—Dr. Armand Neil Graves, "International Spy," and author of "Revelations of the Kaiser's Personal Spy," was under arrest here to-day charged with being within the forbidden zone without a permit.

Graves says he is in the employ of the State Department and is searching for a "Mrs. Cavendish," descendant of the British Earl of Cavendish, "who, he alleges, is in possession of papers proving the 'illegitimacy of the Hohenlohe."

Graves declares he has followed "Mrs. Cavendish" from New Orleans to St. Louis, and was one day behind her on his way to Denver, when arrested.

Since Graves was arrested in 1914 for alleged blackmail of Countess von Bernstorff, and Count Bernstorff, then German Ambassador to the United
